3. Learn and Share Presentation – Tracy
   Nicole Bennett DNP, PMHNP-BC
   Clinical Assistant Professor, School of Nursing
   Oregon Health Sciences University

   Nicole Bennett, DNP, PMHNP is a Clinical Assistant Professor at Oregon Health & Science University in Portland OR teaching in the graduate psychiatric nurse practitioner program for the past 6 years. Nicole has her own clinical practice seeing children, teens and young adults in an outpatient setting. She also owns an outpatient mental health clinic with another nurse practitioner, where they have 12 mental health clinicians seeing clients across the life span.

Nicole presented on how she has implemented the adolescent SBIRT curriculum in her program for Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner (PMHNP) students with about 10-15 graduate students. She used a variety of teaching strategies to maximize learning including face to face discussions and role plays, online reflections pre and post simulation training. Continued challenges include sustainability of the Kognito simulation and available time for reflective practice.
